PEOPLE MATTER.

5 - 8 NOVEMBER 2019
DÜSSELDORF, GERMANY

All of this is nothing without people. That is why safety, security and health at work is increasingly important – with new challenges and new opportunities.

Benefit from A+A 2019. Discover new products and ideas and meet people who all have the same goal: creating ideal conditions for safe, healthy and efficient work.

Shape the future with us – for a working world that focuses on people. I look forward to seeing you!

Yours sincerely, Birgit Horn, Director A+A Global Head Occupational Safety & Health

MANY THINGS MATTER FOR THE FUTURE OF WORK. PEOPLE MAKE THE DIFFERENCE.
A+A 2019: GOOD REASONS FOR VISITING.

KEEP YOUR FINGER ON THE PULSE.
Automation, digitalisation, work 4.0, blurred lines between work and personal life – changing processes in production and organisation as well as technological innovations lead to completely new types of work and working conditions. And new stressful situations for people. A+A 2019 offers solutions and products to meet these challenges.

BENEFIT FROM THE INTENSE TRANSFER OF COMPETENCE.
Besides the A+A Congress, Europe’s largest discussion forum for safety, security and health at work, fascinating live presentations in the halls offer compact knowledge. Plus you get the unique benefits of a trade fair: direct contact with others and personal advice. Get up close and personal with developers and makers, ideas and products. You can do many things online, but not that.

HAVE WE CONVINCED YOU? Then join us from 5 to 8 November, when the experts meet in Düsseldorf.

PERSONAL PROTECTION SAFETY & SECURITY HEALTH AT WORK 36TH INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS FOR OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH

MEETING POINT SAFETY+HEALTH

SPECIAL SHOW “Safe Rescues” TREND FORUM "Safety & Security”
TAKING PROTECTION PERSONALLY.

Efficient protective equipment, digital innovations, individual solutions, functional and fashionable clothing – A+A showcases an impressive range of products that all have a single goal: protecting the lives of people at work. Because nothing is more valuable than life.

That is why people and their protection are a crucial topic for any future-oriented business. Experience maximum functionality and optimum wear comfort presented by market leaders. Perfect protection requires an individualised solution.

CORPORATE fashion

STYLE MEETS PERSONALITY.
From exclusive collections to standard solutions with your branding – our A+A corporate fashion exhibitors offer a wide and attractive range of clothing. Fashionable designs that don’t compromise when it comes to protection and safety. Designs as individual as your company and the people who work there. Send a clear and unmistakable message on your brand and company with fashionable employee outfits.

A+A FASHION SHOW.
The new dress code at work. Top design + safety = fashionable functional clothing.

TREND FORUM SAFETY & SECURITY.
Practice-oriented talks on current and important topics around PPE, hazardous materials, dust, fire protection and protection against explosions for operational practice.
THEME PARK ON “FIRE PROTECTION AND EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT”.
Heavy action by WFVD (Industrial Fire Protection Association of Germany):
Measures to prevent accidents and major emergencies as well as efficient rescue operations.

SAFE RESCUES of injured people from extreme situations. Impressive special presentation demonstrated by THW (German Federal Agency for Technical Relief) and DLRG (German Life Saving Association).

TREND FORUM SAFETY & SECURITY. Practice-oriented talks on current and important topics: PPE, hazardous materials, protection against explosions, fire protection.

THE WORST CASE NEEDS THE BEST SCENARIO.
Technical faults, human failure, heavy storms – the working world is not always a safe place. That’s why occupational fire protection and emergency management is so important – to ensure the best possible prevention and correct behaviour in an emergency.

A+A provides a separate area for these topics, with numerous innovations and optimum solutions that aim to help when it matters most.

SPECIAL EVENT:
A+A Symposium for Occupational Hygiene in the Fire Service - 5th global seminar on occupational cancer among firefighters.

Every company needs individual concepts and measures to protect their employees and material assets. Recognising this secures the future.

A+A presents a wide range of solutions: from fire protection to soundproofing, from electrical to transport safety, from machine protection to property security. This is not only a matter of meeting the needs of the entire company. This also means meeting the needs of every single employee. Collective safety and security is important, however, it’s the people that matter.

A+A CONGRESS 2019 – COME AND JOIN US!
The 36th International Congress for Occupational Safety and Health is one of the world’s key events for workplace safety and health. It runs in conjunction with the A+A Trade Fair.

Come and join us at the A+A Congress 2019 to hear experts talk about the latest solutions to the challenges posed by new work situations and exchange ideas and experiences with real-world OSH professionals.

Around 5,000 visitors are expected to attend the A+A Congress to be held at the CCD Congress Center Düsseldorf from 5 to 8 November 2019. Nearly 40 series of events will provide a forum for discussing the latest scientific findings of occupational safety and health and their practical implementation, as well as an opportunity for policy makers, industry and administration to exchange ideas and hands-on experiences.

You will find an overview of this year’s topics with international focus on the following page!
